

As our hospitality industry continues to face an unprecedented shortage of kitchen staff we are forced to adjust our hours. We love serving you Ottawa and are grateful for the volume of your support!

We will be going on a lunch hiatus Monday to Saturdays moving forward.

Please continue to join us for dinner at 4pm. Stay tuned for the lunch reopening on those days as we complete our team. If you are interested in joining our back of house family please email info@luxebistro.com.
